THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI SANTOSH KUMAR GANGWAR): (a) With a view to contain the deficit in the Oil Pool Account and to enable the Oil Companies to maintain uninterrupted supplies of petroleum products in the country, the Government announced a comprehensive package on September 1, 1997. To end the oil pool deficit, the Government had decided that part of the liabilities of the Oil Coordination

Committee to the Oil Companies shall be cleared through issue of Special Government Bonds by making one time payment to the Oil Companies. Consequently, "10.5% Oil Companies (Non-Transferable) Special Government Bonds 2005" totaling to Rs. 12,984 crores were issued effective 02.03.98. Out of these bonds issued, an amount of Rs. 6382 crores has been sanctioned for redemption of Bonds. Thereafter, "on Account" payments of Rs. 781 crores have been made till 31.01.99.

(b) The company-wise position of bonds issued effective 02.03.98, sanction issued for redemption thereof and the "On Account" payments made after the latest issuance of Govt. Sanction for redemption of bonds is given hereunder:

Oil Companies	Bonds issued	Sanction issued for redemption of bonds	Balance amount of Bonds after sanctioned redemption	'On Account' payment made after latest sanction for redemption (from 16.11.98 to 31.1 .1998)	Balance (as on 31.01.1999)
IOC	6478	4079	2399	457	1942
MKPL	1242	311	931	56	875
ONGC	3122	709	2413	136	2277
OIL	224	57	167	10	157

HPC	994	568	426	66	360
TOTAL	12984	6382	6602	781	5821

(c) and (d) The details of the duty paid by the companies during the current financial year will be known only after closing fo financial year i.e. after 31st March, 1999. The duties are paid by the oil companies to the exchequer and have no impact on the deficit in the Oil Pool Account.

Petrol Adulteration in the Capital

402. SHRI S.M. KRISHNA:
SHRI RAM DAS AGARWAL:

Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that adulteration racket of petrol, diesel and mobile oil is flourishing in the capital on a "large scale on individual basis' as reported in the Hindustran Times dated 8th February, 1999;

(b) if so, what action the police/ enforcement agencies concerned have taken in this regard;

(c) whether the Hindustan Petroleum and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. have so far been able to detect/trace the contents used in adulteration of petrol; and

(d) if so, with what result and whether Government propose to stop open sale of mobil oil, etc.?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI SANTOSH KUMAR GANGWAR): (a) to (d) There have been no cases of adulteration detected by oil companies through underground hidden/unauthorised tanks, during transit in tankers and adulteration with solvents in Delhi. The company officials cooperate with law enforcing agencies and are in regular touch with State Govt. to cheek adulteration. Regular inspections/surprise checks of retail outlets are carried out by the officers of the oil marketing companies. Also special drives are being launched by the industry from time to time for checking malpractices including adulteration. With effect from 31.12.98, only pre-mixed fuel is being dispensed to two stroke vehicles as per directive of Supreme Court.
